

CITY OF MANCHESTER

Senior Services Department

151 Douglas Street
Manchester, New Hampshire 03102
(603) 624-6533 • Fax (603) 628-6159
Email: senior@manchesternh.gov

Commissioners
Leon Drysdale
Mary Lynn Edwards
Terry Gesel, secretary
Pat Kalik
Sean Parr, Chair

Staff
Kim Drohan SSSII

Senior Services Commission SSSII Report April 13, 2022 9:00am at the Cashin Senior Center

Additional programming, clinics and presentations:

- Balance and Pain Assessments- April 5th
 - Reiki- April 7th
 - Lenten Bible Study- March 14th- April 11th
 - Volunteer Appreciation Luncheon- April 15th
 - Remembering Together (formerly Senior Storytelling) with the Manchester Library- April 11th & 18th
 - Telehealth What Is It and What Can I Expect? Presentation April 20th
 - Diabetic Shoe Clinics & Shoe Pick-ups- Thursdays
 - Movie Matinee- April 28th
 - Ben & Jerry's Ice Cream Social- April 29th
 - Hearing Screenings
 - Interested in shuffle board? - sign-up at reception desk
- Masks are optional
 - Sanitizing stations are available throughout the center

If you missed the fraud and scam presentation with MPD and special guest Eddy the comfort pony there is a link on our website to watch the presentation.

Administrative

Kim posted available volunteer positions on VolunteerNH. The positions included a Reception desk volunteer, one on one computer & devices tutor, and a senior center helper (someone to help in the kitchen or call bingo). Two of the volunteers started in March.

Staff member, Emily gave a tour of the Cashin Senior Center to Emily Reilly of Manchester Ink Link and showed her all we have to offer. An Article was posted on Manchester Ink Link about the Cashin Senior Center.

Friends of the Cashin Senior Center

The Friends of the Cashin Senior Center had tickets available to the showing of Agatha Christie's The Rule of Three at the Majestic Theatre April 24th available to members.

Building/property maintenance

Roof leak in parlor- completed

Called DPW to pick up mattress left by old tenants of 155 Douglas Street

4 lights in Multi-purpose room fixed and/or bulbs replaced- completed

Respectfully Submitted,
Kim Drohan, Senior Services Specialist II